REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

We, your Executive Committee, report that we have approved the report of the committee appointed last Conference to recommend a basis upon which churches may be enrolled as Banner Churches. The report has been mimeographed and sent out to the church secretaries and pastors. The cost of mimeographing and postage is $2.02.

We divided last year's Conference collections as follows: $100 to Conference Fund; $500 to the Southern Christian Convention; balance to Home Mission Fund, which amounted to $306.80.

We appropriated $40 each to the following ten churches: Bethel, Whistler's Chapel, Palmyra, Wood's Chapel, Island Ford, Mt. Lebanon, St. Peter's, Christian Chapel, Joppa and Beulah.

By mail, we approved Rev. W. B. Fuller as pastor at Beulah.

We elected delegates to the General Council, which at that time was appointed to meet at Cleveland, Ohio, May 24-31, 1933, but which has since been postponed one year. The delegates elected were: W. C. Wampler, M. L. Weekley, A. W. Andes; alternates, B. J. Earp, R. L. Williamson.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE MISSION SECRETARY.

Again we are called upon to give an account of our stewardship in the business of Missions, and as we consult the records we must face some facts which are not altogether pleasant to look upon; and yet our opportunities are gone, our records are made, the books are sealed so far as the past Conference year is concerned. Our only hope to redeem ourselves lies in the future.

During the conference year of 1931 and 1932 the entire Conference composed of 26 churches, paid the shamefully small sum of $541.61, an average of about 21 cents per member to promote the greatest business in all the world.

This past conference year, 1932 and 1933, we contributed even a smaller sum, only $464.09, which is $77.52 less than the previous conference year, and only an average of 19 cents per member as based on last year's statistical report.

Are we satisfied with such records as these? Are we going to continue to turn a deaf ear to the Master's call? God forbid.

The only remedy we have to recommend to lift us above our selfishness and littleness is God's way for financing the work of the kingdom, as found in Mal. 3:10.

We believe that if this method of giving was adopted by even 50 per cent of the church members then all of our financial problems of the church would be forever solved.

Let us all resolve now to do better through the conference year ahead of us.

R. O. ROTHGEB,

Adopted.

Conference Mission Secretary.

On motion, John T. Kernodle and wife were invited to seats as deliberative members.

The annual address was delivered by Rev. A. W. Andes.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RELIGIOUS LITERATURE.

Search the Scriptures, for in them ye shall find eternal life. If only a lost, dying world or soul would obey those timely words many disasters of life would be avoided. In such a day as this when faith on every hand seems to tumble there is a definite need for a study of the Scriptures—a study that will lead to a higher and more spiritual understanding of God and his nature. The crying need of all nations today is to know God and the wondrous way he performs. All things are possible with God, and unless we read and meditate upon his Holy Word we cannot understand him.

True, today we see on every hand the demand for light reading material and entertainment. But men of God's kingdom must show the world that through study and trust of his Holy Word all things are possible. Then the world will see and believe that he is a God all powerful. If we Christians faint, what has the sinner to lean upon?

Lest we faint, we offer the following resolutions:

1. That every Christian set aside fifteen minutes daily to read, study and pray over some passage of Scripture. Read it audibly until you see and understand its message.

2. That every Christian parent see that his children have an opportunity to read the Bible or religious literature in the home every day.

3. That each church have a definite program for Bible study.

4. That we should give more loyal support to our own church papers and religious literature.

A. A. DOFFLEMYRE,

An address on "Our Publications" was given by John T. Kernodle, Managing Editor of The Christian Sun.

As Director of Religious Education, I wish to thank the members of the various churches and organizations for the support they have given during the past year. I wish also to offer the following for the ensuing year:

1. That our pastors and other church and Sunday School workers emphasize the well rounded life—physical, mental and moral—in all of their preaching and teaching.

2. That increased loyalty to our college, our orphanage, our publications, and other institutions of our church be one of our most important objectives this year.

3. That the Director of Religious Education have two well qualified assistants, selected by the Conference or by the Executive Committee, as special helpers in getting across a finer program of religious education this year.

We, your committee, recommend that our young people use every available means for preparation for life's higher duties. We urge that they, at least, complete a high school course, and, when possible, a college course also.

We would direct attention of prospective students toward Elon College, our own institution.

We also urge our people to give moral and financial support to Elon. Elon has had, and is having a hard pull financially. Loyalty and sacrifice on the part of our people can save it.

CONFERENCE IN SESSION AGAIN

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The last command of our Lord and Master to "Go into all the world and teach my gospel," brings to our minds the thought that our Foreign Mission work is the heart of our whole church program. We are taught to give of our best to others, and how miserably we fail when we keep our men and money in the home field! There is no work so great as our Foreign Mission work. It is a work of love and faith to give, and to serve our brethren in far-away lands. There has never been a greater opportunity in the history of our church to prove that we are indeed Christians, and are willing to obey his great command. With the open doors in China, Japan, India, Porto Rico, and the many other lands where our united church is working, there also comes the call for funds to meet the growing needs in these fields. Shall we heed the call of service, or shall we continue to serve self? Let us earnestly pray that our Conference will catch a new vision of our foreign work, and that each of us may begin the coming year with a greater determination to help make Christ known in the lives of those in foreign lands.

Realizing the great need of interested workers, we recommend:

1. That a missionary society in each church be our aim for the coming year.
2. That we teach and train our young people in work.
3. That our ministers be urged to keep their people informed as to conditions in the foreign field.
4. That we urge all our people to subscribe for and read The Missionary Herald and The Christian Sun.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SOCIAL SERVICE.

We, your Committee on Social Service, record our observations and conclusions in the following summary:

We believe that society is rapidly moving away from the old social and economic simplicities of life and becoming more highly complex.

We believe that these increasing social and economic complexities work distinctly and increasingly to make the interdependence of men more absolute.

We believe that such a condition is creating increasing confusion to rapidly growing millions of men, and is rendering their economic existence more uncertain and insecure. The growing anxiety and uncertainty so wide-spread about material existence is not always to be interpreted as love for material things, but is often only the elementary instinct for self-preservation and self-respect.

We believe that our present social order tends to confuse and destroy the supreme human values of life by shifting the emphasis from Jesus' conception of the unmeasured value of individual human life to man's insignificant place in the vast social order.

We believe that science and the inventive genius of man have given us a vast cold machine civilization that has swamped the spiritual significance of life, and far outrun our spiritual sympathies and understanding of life.

Now, if the gospel of Jesus has no protest to this modern material conception of life, or no healing word to give, then the situation is helpless and tragic. But we believe that the church has the dynamic that will cure all our social sins in Jesus' conception of the eternal meaning of a human life.

We believe the church ought to amass her vast and devastating artillery behind this one great conception of Jesus—that man, any man, is the most terribly significant fact in the universe, until it destroys everything that stands in the way of the divine fulfillment of every lowliest life, and all life is brought under the spell of Jesus' ideal of love and service and power.

REPORT OF STEWARDSHIP SECRETARY.

God did not leave the promoting and perfecting of his organized church to fate nor to chance methods. There is a way—a Bible way—to make his church glorious in the world and speedily victorious over the world. The way is to be found in the creation-formation story as recorded in the first two chapters of Genesis, also many New Testament experiences, notably the incident, with its related happenings, as told in Acts 4:31-5:11.

Reservation unto himself of a definite part of every individual's money or property, as the case may be, is an eternal rule established by God at the time of the formation of mankind and the assignment of man and woman to their home and work; the same was reaffirmed and emphasized by circumstances attending early Christianity, and, today, observance of that rule is the key that must unlock the mind and mint of the church before Jesus can come to receive the church unto himself. Call this particular grace stewardship or what not (some have objected to the name), like the word prohibition in its peculiar usage, until we find a better name for the status being sought, let us, in this matter, stick to Stewardship as the best name we know for the thing we are trying to establish.

May I here express my thanks for every bit of assistance and encouragement I have received, from whatever source, as for nearly five years I have tried to help the churches of this Conference understand that not until Christians have performed their divinely-required material stewardship will God multiply to the upbuilding of his spiritual kingdom our proffered nickels and dimes (for who GIVES more than nickels and dimes in comparison to secular spending?), even as he multiplied to human physical sustenance the few small loaves and fishes.

MRS. J. J. LINCOLN,

Adopted.

Stewardship Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS.

Home Missions in its fullest meaning includes all the activities of the church alike, except what it does for the Foreign Field. The mission of the church is to create a sentiment for right living toward our fellowman and toward God. For a conference, a church, or an individual to create such a sentiment it must assume such an attitude toward the principles and teachings of God that will be reflected in the whole life for righteousness.

Jesus said, "If I be lifted up I will draw all men unto me." Could it be that we have failed to lift him up, is why we have increased so little in members? Our membership in 1922 was 2,373 and in 1932 it was 2,419—an increase of 45 in ten years. In 1922 our Conference paid for all purposes, $15,098.85; ten years later we paid $9,487.56—a decrease of $5,621.29, while we paid in 1922 for pastors' salaries, $3,970.13, and in 1932 we paid $4,538.01—an increase of $567.88. Facing these facts and visualizing the needs of the church in its various enterprises, including Home Mission work, we view with alarm the failure of our churches to meet Conference apportionments. In this period of depression the church is passing through a crisis as well as our country. It is a time for great faith, deep consecration, and great sacrifice on the part of the followers of Jesus Christ to carry on the work of his kingdom.

We, therefore, earnestly recommend:

1. A revival of religion in the home life, the Sunday School, and the church by the highest standards of Christian living, Christian education and evangelistic methods.

2. That churches refrain from reducing Conference apportionments only in the same percentage as local church expenses, including pastors' salaries are reduced.

3. That the adoption of the tithe as the standard for financing the work of the church and the kingdom will solve all the financial problems of the church and many of the spiritual ones. We are grieved that some of our churches are resorting to methods used by the world to raise funds to balance the church budget.

4. That any appropriations for the churches be left in the hands of the Executive and Home Mission Committees for distribution.

Address, "Random Thoughts on Home Missions," by Rev. H. S. Hardcastle.

General discussion by Col. J. E. West.

Report adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS.

While not underestimating the importance of Foreign Missions, the unusual conditions in America are a challenge to the church to save America, and this Conference should emphasize Home Missions as never before in its history.

While our heavenly Father has blessed the nation with a bountiful harvest, greater than our needs, our banks are filled with money and our vaults with non-taxable securities, yet, there are from eight to ten million people unemployed and many begging for bread. American leadership in business, finance, and statesmanship has utterly failed to prevent this national crisis and the nation must look to the church for a solution of our unsolved problems, that is, the principles and doctrines of the Gospel of Jesus Christ must be so preached and lived by his followers as to permeate every phase of human activity, including business, politics and social life.

The ministry of the church must proclaim with even greater emphasis the Virgin birth, the Deity of Christ, his atoning sacrifice on the cross, his resurrection and ascension, and the power of the Holy Spirit. The Christian Church should be a leader in this great Home Mission program, also, emphasizing the five cardinal principles of the church, writing and teaching its history, and laying greater emphasis on Baptism and the Holy Communion as two of the anchors of the Christian.

Having taken the name Christian as a "sufficient name for the church," we should follow in the footsteps of Jesus, especially obeying his first and second commandments, Matthew 22:37, 38, 39.

Speaking particularly of the work of the Conference, it is interesting to note that, in 1818, it was organized in this historic church. Let us pause to thank our heavenly Father for the progress we have made, review briefly our history and take courage for the future. While our growth has been slow, we have made some progress since 1833 (100 years ago), when there were ten churches and a membership of 629. Let us compare our condition now (using 1932 figures) with 1883 (fifty-year period). Then: churches, 25; membership, 3,526; pastors' salaries, $3,194; Home Missions, $428.99; value of church property, $28,210. At 1932 Conference: churches 46; membership 10,689; pastors' salaries, $35,450; Home Missions, estimated from all sources, $6,400; value of church property, $1,340,000.

As to appropriations, we recommend the usual appropriation of $1,000.00 to Christian Temple, which leaves a balance of $1,000.00 due on the pledge heretofore made.

We recommend the appropriation of $400.00 to Newport News Church to be applied on mortgage debt, and $400.00 to South Norfolk Church to be applied to interest on mortgage debt, these two appropriations to be paid on a pro rata basis, if the Home Mission fund is not large enough to pay same in full.

Respectfully submitted,

J. E. WEST,
MRS. I. W. JOHNSON,
DR. D. L. HARRELL,
Committee.

Address by Dr. N. G. Newman, President. Theme: "Jesus in the Midst of the Churches."

Communion was administered by Dr. W. M. Jay, assisted by Rev. R. L. House and Deacons J. T. Rawles, Dr. J. W. Manning, R. H. Riedel, Phillip Jones, J. W. Folk, R. C. Norfleet and A. L. Jolly.

Benediction by Dr. N. G. Newman.

Adjourned for lunch.

FIRST DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

The report of the Committee on Stewardship was read by Rev. R. L. House, Chairman.

Address on Stewardship by Rev. R. L. House.

On motion the report was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON STEWARDSHIP.

The teaching and training in stewardship in our denomination has been concerned almost exclusively with voluntary contributions in life. To be sure the stewardship of time, talent, and the like have rightly been emphasized. Now the voluntary contributions of the average church are not sufficient to meet its needs. This must be evident to all. Many of our churches are handicapped by a large debt. Our College is in a financial strait. Missionaries are being called from the field. Old and disabled ministers are not being adequately cared for. The Orphanage and The Christian Sun are both in desperate need of funds. Funds are inadequate without exception. Our program of "The Stewardship of Life" has failed to meet the needs of our church program. Wherein have we failed in our teaching of stewardship?

Evidently one of the most important and fruitful phases of stewardship has been overlooked or ignored. We have been silent on the problem of how one should dispose of his property in death. We have not urged people to make a bequest to the church. It has never occurred to a majority of people to remember the cause of Christ in their wills. And this is due to a lack of training in stewardship. So, if we urge people to tithe in life, why not urge them to do the same in death?

In view of these facts we recommend: That the ministers of the Eastern Virginia Conference urge their people to make out their wills in due form, leaving a tenth of their possessions to their local church, to some institution of our denomination, or to some other benevolent cause which they may designate.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT LEE HOUSE,

C. E. GERRINGER,

ELWOOD W. JONES,

Committee.

The report of the Woman's Missionary Conference was read by Mrs. Russell T. Bradford, and adopted as follows:

REPORT OF WOMAN'S MISSIONARY CONFERENCE.

The Twenty-first Annual Session of the Woman's Missionary Conference was held at Cypress Chapel Christian Church, Friday, October 27, 1933. There was a splendid attendance and a lovely spirit seemed to permeate the entire session. The theme of the Conference, "Adventuring With Christ in Missions," was appropriately carried out in the entire program.

The Treasurer's report showed that our total receipts for the year were $5,148.00, with a total membership of 1,910.

The Young People's Missionary Conference met on Tuesday evening, October 24th, at the Holland Christian Church, with Miss Sarah Daughtrey as president. There was a fine attendance, with an enthusiastic, inspiring program. The banner for attendance was awarded the Young People's Society of Bethlehem Christian Church, the third consecutive year they have won this banner. They had a representation at the Conference of seventy-five young people.

In closing the year's work of our Conference, we would thank all our officers, our women, and our pastors for their wonderful cooperation. Although the year has had its difficulties and its problems, we feel that it has been a year of privilege and progress, and that many of us, through our Societies, have made a real adventure with Christ in spiritual achievement. With this as the basis of our hope and a larger faith we feel determined to press forward to greater achievements in the name and for the sake of our Lord.

We submit the following officers for the year 1933-1934:

President—Mrs. John Cartwright, Norfolk, Va.

First Vice-President—Mrs. Russell T. Bradford, Route 2, Suffolk, Va.

Second Vice-President—Mrs. W. H. Baker, Newport News, Va.

The report of the Committee on Foreign Missions was read by Rev. J. M. Roberts, Chairman.

Address on the "Divine Commission," by Dr. J. O. Atkinson, Mission Secretary.

Report adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Missions were born out of a belief that in Christ Jesus and in him alone, full salvation is found for human life and human society. This salvation, which is good news, is to be proclaimed to the uttermost parts of the earth. No organization but the church has ever undertaken to do this. The great end of Christ's Church is to get under this great task, and make sure that the last and greatest command of Jesus is realized in all the world. The world is the field. In our praying and giving we should keep a map of the world before us. The religion of Christ has no boundary line.

The American Board, of which we are a part, is sounding this ultimate message throughout the earth. This same Board is in its 123rd year. Our main fields are: Africa, Japan, China, Mexico, Turkey, India and the Philippines. The work in the other areas is in the process of transfer to national bodies.

For the past four or five years the Foreign Mission Board has had to curtail its forces. Gifts have greatly fallen off. One-sixth (118) missionaries have been retired during this time. Offerings for this year have been likewise reduced. The following donations for Foreign Missions from this Conference this year are:

Churches	$ 389.62
Sunday Schools	768.28
Women's Societies	2,557.92
Total	$3,715.82

With these facts and figures before us your Committee on Foreign Missions submits the following recommendations:

1. That we urge upon our churches the necessity of the Missionary Message and Missionary Giving, and that each give, this year, a sum equal to one-third of the pastor's salary.

2. That every church in this Conference receive an offering on Easter Sunday, or the nearest Sunday thereto, and that each Sunday School receive a monthly offering for Missions, and on Sundays where possible, a missionary program be rendered.

3. That first, last and always, we seek to make the Christian life paramount. No giving can take the place of giving of self with no reservations.

4. That we pray that God, through us, may send more laborers forth into the field. The grain is ripe. Our great leader says, "Go ye into all the world." We can keep the message only by giving it to others.

The report of the Committee on Education was Read by Dr. I. W. Johnson, Chairman.

On motion the report was laid on the table until the report on Religious Literature might be read by Dr. Chas. Eldred Shelton.

Address on "Religious Reading," by Dr. Chas. Eldred Shelton.

Report discussed by Dr. J. O. Atkinson, Rev. R. A. Whitten, Col. J. E. West.

The report on Religious Literature was amended and adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RELIGIOUS LITERATURE.

In presenting the report of the Committee on Religious Literature, it is thought best to present first a plea for more reading of all worthy literature by all sorts and conditions of men, women and children.

We deplore, as we did last year, that, owing to the craze for amusements other than those of the printed page, there is a decline in every form of mental growth other than what comes from contacts of society and business, and these, being mainly of non-readers, the conversation is neither enlightening, inspiring or uplifting.

Again we call attention to the insistent claim that the adult mind is degenerating, and that taste and outlook are declining and narrowing with every year of life.

Nor is this the worst feature of the absorption of our generation with purely secular and material subjects of thought and the occupying of leisure. It is nowhere more true than in matters of the soul that a vacuum is abhorred, and where there is a tendency to vacuity there will be an attempt to fill the space with the thing at hand that will rush in as the result of pressure from without. And there is a constant pressure, presented with all the ingenuity of modern advertising, of reading matter for entertainment only, by parade of the worst, presenting in its most attractive form of the vile and degrading in literature. When the normal taste for the informing and uplifting is lost, real tragedy has come to the soul.

Such, we believe, is one of the great dangers of our day. When people read at all, the trash and worse is at hand. Our newsstands reek with noisome magazines and pamphlets. Our supposedly respectable magazines are increasingly presenting suggestive sex themes and marshalling the criminals as of heroic mould and making crime and sex depravity not simply endurable, but attractive and worthy of emulation.

Then the country is becoming infected with "Lending Libraries" by means of which anyone can have, for a trifle of money, the latest from the press with no regard as to whether the stuff is poison or just worthless.

Our newspapers always contain material that ought not to be tolerated in a Christian home. And yet, bridge playing mothers and fathers absorbed in business or golf, take no pains to see that youthful minds are guarded from infection or that they are supplied with wholesome mental pabulum.

The Committee would call attention to the fact that we are as are our interests and tastes! So our characters are formed. These interests and tastes are more often caught than taught. The older associates of the family and their interests and tastes have more to do with the tastes and interests of children than all the precepts and ideals that may be presented by teacher or pastor. How can it be expected that in a home in which the elders have no taste for or participation in instructive, inspirational, or religious reading, can give the younger generation any such desires?

But interests and tastes are often created by causes entirely outside of the home and by things the community and friends see and talk about. The women of the neighborhood are doing nothing in the way of uplifting reading; reading looked upon as a task to be shunned or gotten rid of as hurriedly as possible; these are not an atmosphere in which normal tastes and interests can be formed.

Then the things in which their elders are interested are, of course, the things for which the younger folks will strive. And if these are corrupting, what hope is there? The talking picture creates interests and ideals. What are they? That sex and crime are the only worthwhile interests. The habit of taking one's relaxation in games and talkies only will so take possession of the interest of young and old, that there is no room for anything else, especially for religious reading, the space is filled!

Believing the above statements to be true, your Committee on Religious Literature contends that before there can be any real interest created in such reading it is necessary to clear the atmosphere of the above conditions; parents and pastors, and older young people should unite in a campaign for the ideals suggested below, both in personal taste and habit and in real effort to take the foul odors out of the air we breathe in our communities.

We, therefore, recommend:

1. That by precept and example the Christian home, as well as Sunday School, Christian Endeavor, and church, should cultivate a taste for good reading.

2. That pastors and people enter into a real drive to purge our newsstands of impure literature and to make the talking pictures somewhere near decent so that the taste of youth may not be corrupted and a love for higher things be not excluded.

3. That by every means in our power we impart a love for and interest in the Bible, as the most interesting and valuable book in the world and God's Word!

4. That we pledge anew our loyalty to the Sunday School helps issued by our own publishing houses.

5. That our pastors, Sunday School superintendents and teachers inform themselves upon the issues of our publishing houses and recommend them to young and older.

6. The vigorous promotion of the use of our periodicals: The Christian Sun, The Congregationalist and Herald of Gospel Liberty, and The Missionary Herald for adults. For the children and young folks we have as fine a lot of periodical reading matter as can be found in the whole field of such publications. This means of giving a taste for and an interest in the best should be used more by our churches and homes. The Mayflower, for beginners and primary children; Firelight for junior and younger intermediate girls; Boyland for boys of the same age; and The Pilgrim Highroad for young people, are without superior and should be used in all our homes and churches.

CHAS. ELDRED SHELTON,

MRS. J. W. MANNING,

R. A. WHITTEN,

Committee.

It was moved that a Committee of five be appointed, three of whom should be ladies, to consider plans to increase the support of THE CHRISTIAN SUN.

The following committee was appointed: J. G. Truitt, H. S. Hardcastle, F. C. Lester, Mrs. R. T. Bradford, Mrs. W. V. Leathers, Mrs. I. W. Johnson.

The report of W. E. MacClenny, Historian, was read and on motion adopted as follows:

REPORT OF HISTORIAN.

Your historian begs leave to report that the address of Miss Mary Rawles Jones and the daily press have carried good sketches of this ancient church. It would be but a repetition of the same to have it here.

Thirteen years ago at the session of this Conference held here, papers were prepared on the History of the Churches that had composed the Conference since its organization, by your historian, and a paper by the late Dr. W. W. Staley on the men who had been in its ministry for the first 100 years of its history, and there was some move made to have same published, but so far it has not been done. In those papers there was a good deal of data relative to the Conference and the churches that might be of value to the ministers and laymen of the church. This might be looked into at this time.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

W. E. MACCLENNY, Historian.

It was moved and carried that the historical papers referred to above be printed in the ANNUAL or in pamphlet form at the discretion of the Secretary.

Dr. Charles Eldred Shelton, of Portsmouth Congregational Church, and Rev. W. H. Corbitt, of the Holland Baptist Church, were introduced to the Conference.

The report of Committee on Education was taken from the table.

Address on Elon College, by Dr. L. E. Smith, President.

Address by Dr. J. E. Rawles.

General discussion of the report.

Report adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

During the past year, two members of the Biblical Class, A. L. Granger, Jr., and Aubrey C. Todd, did good work in the Freshman Class at Elon College, and very favorable reports have come from the President, L. E. Smith, commending their grades and deportment. They are members of the Sophomore Class this year.

Rev. Dennis F. Parsons, a licentiate, has not reported for several years, and we recommend that his name be dropped from the roll. He has paid his financial obligations to the Conference in full.

Revs. J. B. Chadwick, S. W. Phillips, D. D. Nash, J. E. Huber and J. Howard Smith continue on the roll as licentiates.

In order to establish a policy concerning loans to ministerial students, we recommend that no applicant shall be eligible to receive a loan until he has completed the Freshman year in College, or its equivalent, and has made an average of 80 per cent on the subjects studied; and has satisfied the Committee that his deportment in College has been becoming to the ministry.

We further recommend that the maximum loan to ministerial students be as follows: $150.00 for the Sophomore year; $150.00 for the Junior year, and $200.00 for the Senior year.

We recommend that all ministerial students securing loans from the Educational Fund be required to give a note, of even date with the loan, with interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum, payable annually, beginning four years after the date of the note. Curtailment of the principal of these notes shall begin within two years after the student leaves College, and the full amount of the loan and interest due shall be payable within ten years from the date of the original note.

We recommend that A. L. Granger, Jr., and Aubrey C. Todd be granted a loan of $150.00 each from the Educational Fund to assist them in continuing their studies in Elon College.

We recommend that Revs. J. G. Truitt and R. A. Whitten be enrolled as Elders upon the presentation of their letters of transfer.

We recommend that the Treasurer of Conference be authorized to secure the renewal of the Christian Temple note for $1,000.00, for one year, on the same conditions as named in the present note.

We recommend that $2,000.00 be loaned to South Norfolk Christian Church, with interest at 6 per cent, payable on October 1st each year, said note to be secured by personal endorsements satisfactory to the Committee; it being understood that any donations made from the Home Mission Fund shall be paid on the principal of this note, unless Conference shall otherwise direct.

Mrs. Gladys E. Caviness has made application to be licensed to preach the Gospel, as an evangelist. She has completed two years of work as a student in Guilford College. She has been assisting her husband, Rev. H. C. Caviness, in evangelistic work for some time, and has proven her gifts in that field. The First Christian Church, Portsmouth, of which she is a member, has filed with your Committee a letter of recommendation making petition that she be licensed to preach. After careful consideration, we recommend that this Conference authorize the President to license her according to the requirements of the Government of the Christian Church.

We heartily commend Elon College to the constituency of this Conference, and bespeak for it continued patronage and support.

SECOND DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

Conference met and called to order at 2:30 o'clock. Devotional service led by Dr. Elwood W. Jones. Scripture, Psalm 46.

The President licensed Mrs. Gladys Elizabeth Caviness as a probationer to preach the Gospel.

The report of the Committee on Ministerial Ethics was read by Mr. M. W. Hollowell.

Address on "The Minister's Personal Habits," by Rev. O. D. Poythress. Report discussed by Rev. J. F. Morgan and Mr. M. W. Hollowell.

Report adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MINISTERIAL ETHICS.

We, your Committee, recognize that among the fields of largest investment and the calls to the greatest service today, is that of the Christian ministry, the call to preach the Gospel. That the preacher is a guide to those who are in darkness, and a bulwark to those who are in moral confusion and uncertainty, and, as such, his influence is incalculable in our civilization. He molds the thought of his hearers, he mars the vision, or points the way to higher and better visions of things holy and divine.

We, therefore, recommend:

1. That this Conference carefully guard the portals to the ministry. That their qualifications be carefully considered and none but the most worthy be admitted and protected, and the unworthy rejected.

2. That our ministers be able to set the proper standards of worship and consecration. That they be men of God, full of the spirit of faith, men of peace and honor, blameless and harmless. The world is hungry today for this type of leadership. It is crying for love and sympathy and light.

3. That our ministers impress upon the minds of their parishioners the moral and spiritual value of Christian brotherhood, and that they, themselves, imbibe the same, that they may be mutually strengthening to each other.

4. That ministers study the principle of frugality in expenditures and the system of religious laws, rites and ceremonies, and endeavor to guard against the habit of incurring debt.

5. That ministers in all social and business intercourse be pure and prudent in speech, that they seek to uphold the sanctity of the pulpit, and guard against all language of a coarse, irrelevant and personal nature, and use only such as will elevate, strengthen and inspire.

O. D. POYTHRESS,
M. W. HOLLOWELL,
T. N. LOWE,

Committee.

It was moved and carried that the report of the Special Committee on Elon College be made a special order following the consideration of Convention Resolutions.

Southern Convention Resolutions were presented by Dr. Stanley C. Harrell, President. On motion these Resolutions were referred to the following Special Committee: Drs. N. G. Newman, I. W. Johnson, L. E. Smith, Rev. J. G. Truitt, J. E. West and E. E. Holland.

Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Maxey of the Whaleyville M. E. Church were introduced to the Conference.

The report of the Special Committee on Elon College was read by Rev. John G. Truitt, Chairman, and adopted as follows:

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON ELON COLLEGE.

We, your Committee on Elon College, beg leave to recommend:

1. That we, as a Conference, take recognition of, and endorse, a recent action of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees of Elon College, authorizing a campaign to raise $25,000.00 for Elon.

2. That our Eastern Virginia Conference assume $12,500.00 as its share; and that $5,000.00 of this sum shall be raised through our local churches, and that the President of the College, himself, be requested to raise the remaining $7,500.00.

3. That each local church raise its share on the basis of 50 cents per member; and that all monies sent in from Dollar-a-Month Clubs, Fifth Sunday Offerings, Special Offerings, etc., shall count on the church's share.

4. That the annual reports to Conference show how much each church contributed to Elon College during the year.

5. That a Committee on Elon College shall be named in each church by the pastor, consisting of himself and two or more other members, whose duties it shall be to direct this campaign in his local church, collect the money and send same through local treasurer to Elon College.

6. That we recognize January and February as Educational Period and the second Sunday in January as Elon College Day.

7. That the Executive Committee of the Conference be, and is hereby constituted an Elon College Committee whose duties shall be to see that the above recommendations are put into effect. That campaign to begin January 1, 1934.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN G. TRUITT,

W. M. JAY,

The report on Temperance and Moral Reform was read by Dr. W. M. Jay, Chairman. A Minority Report was read by Col. E. E. Holland.

Pending the adoption of the report:

Address, "What is the Authority for Words," Rev. J. E. McCauley.

Minority Report discussed by Col. E. E. Holland.

General discussion by Col. J. E. West, Rev. H. S. Hardcastle and Dr. W. M. Jay.

After much discussion the Majority Report was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE AND MORAL REFORM.

Your Committee on Temperance and Moral Reform would submit the following report, to-wit:

The Christian Church must ever be committed to the policy of temperance and moral reform. The ideal policy of the Christian is to be temperate in all things that are good, for even good things can be carried to excess; but he is also enjoined by Holy Writ to abstain from all things that are wrong. Paul, in speaking of life as a race, says in I. Cor. 9:25: "Every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things." But he reinforces this statement in his first letter to the Thessalonians 5:22, by saying: "Abstain from all appearances of evil."

He declares again in Romans 14:20, 21: "All things are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offense." And the Apostle continues: "It is good neither to eat flesh nor to drink wine, nor anything whereby thy brother stumbleth or is made weak." And in I. Cor. 6:12, he adds: "All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient; all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any."

Speaking of our conversation one with another, the Apostle Peter says in I. Peter 1:15: "Be ye holy in all manner of conversation." And in I. Peter 3:10, he says: "Let him refrain his lips that they speak no guile." So we see from these Scriptures that there are things which are not permissible for us to say or do; and there are things that are lawful but not expedient for us to say or do. We must, therefore, learn to distinguish between good and evil, that in all things good we may be temperate and abstain from the things that are evil. To this end we make the following declarations and recommendations:

1. We recognize that the home is the place where the fundamentals of character are established in the child. We, therefore, urge a purer, saner home life, where the children may be trained in the best morals and manners, and receive the fundamentals of the Christian doctrine of the Bible and church.

2. We recognize the fact that from authoritative statistics, crime is steadily on the increase, and that the greatest and most alarming criminal period falls upon youth under 25 years of age, reaching its highest point at the age of 19 years. We, therefore, urge again the purifying power of the well ordered home, and that the church and the Sunday School exert a greater effort to reach the youth of our land with their Christian training, for as eminent jurists have found, only a small per cent of the juvenile criminals come from those who are members of the Sunday School.

3. The increased habit of cigarette smoking is to be deplored. We cannot too strongly condemn the sinister methods used in cigarette advertising and other methods of appeal, in order to influence young girls and boys to adopt the habit. The evil effects of nicotine upon the body should be definitely taught in the home and the school.

4. We reaffirm our attitude against war as an un-Christian method of settling international disputes, and would urge our country to be a leader among the nations in advancing the cause of disarmament. We would implore the prayers of our people for the success of the Disarmament Conference now in session in Geneva, and trust that out of this Conference of nations may come definite relief from the appalling burdens of land and naval armaments. We heartily commend the present agencies of peace treaties and pacts as the most adequate and suitable means of adjusting international disputes.

5. We realize with regrets the great change that has taken place since our last Conference session, in the mental attitude towards the liquor question; and that sweeping legislation has been enacted in both Federal and State government for the purpose of setting up a system of liquor control as opposed to prohibition and the Eighteenth Amendment.

Thirty-three States have already ratified the repeal amendment and six more are to vote on this issue at the general election on November 7th. That the Eighteenth Amendment will be repealed seems inevitable; but even at that more than 30 States will have their own State prohibitory laws in force.

We unite with our brethren, the Disciples of Christ, in their stand taken at their recent National Convention at Pittsburgh, in regard to the stand the church should take, pending the formation of substitute liquor legislation, and endorse their resolution in part as follows: "While we reaffirm our adherence to the principle of outlawry as the ultimate solution of the liquor problem, as Christian citizens we cannot be indifferent to the conditions which may exist in our country at any given moment. We are under no obligation to help those who have destroyed national prohibition to frame substitute legislation. For any efforts in that direction they must assume sole responsibility. We will exert all the power at our command to compel the enactment of the best legislation."

We urge our churches to establish adequate systems of scientific instruction relative to the harmful effects of alcohol upon the individual and upon society, especially through teaching in the home, in the church school, in young people's organizations and through the public school.

Respectfully submitted,

W. M. JAY,

J. W. MANNING,

THIRD DAY—MORNING SESSION.

Conference met and called to order by President at 9:30 o'clock. Prayer led by Rev. C. E. Gerringer. Minutes of yesterday read and approved.

It was moved and carried that the report of the Committee on Christian Education be made a special order at this time.

The report of the Committee on Christian Education was read by Rev. J. E. McCauley, Chairman.

Address on this subject by Rev. F. C. Lester.

The report was, on motion, adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION.

We might define individual education as the sum total of all that one knows. Christian education is the sum total of all the principal teachings and actions of a life which help to build a character like Christ. It is, therefore, the business of the church to be concerned about every phase of life, which goes to help build, or destroy, character. The church, in general, acknowledges this responsibility. From the time when the church emanated from the hand of the Divine Founder, until this good hour, she has been interested in, and has tried to perform the duty of, teaching the fundamental doctrines of the conviction of sin, repentance, regeneration and salvation from sin. Christian education has to do with all methods of acquainting people with the ridding of life of sin. But the main emphasis should be to help the individual to develop into the likeness of Jesus Christ.

There are many changes in the methods of Christian Education as time comes and goes. But now is the time for emphasis on training young leaders and encouraging every phase of work that develops Christian character. It is our desire that Christ shall dominate the life of every church and each individual life. This can be done only when proper training is given to those who are to be the leaders in the church. It is very evident that the interest in Christian Education is at a higher tide now than at any period in the history of our church. The young people are more interested and active in all phases of our church work than at any period of our history. While there is no disposition of your Committee to make you think that all the problems have been or will be solved by Christian Education, we can show marked improvement, over former years, in all phases of Christian work. This improvement is due to the fact that some one recognized the possibilities of the young people, and set about to give them a chance.

Through the direction and leadership of the Board of Christian Education, the following things have been accomplished during the Conference years of 1932-33:

1. The Elon Chautauqua, July 14th-30th, with an attendance of 60, and credits awarded to 57.

2. Training Schools have been held in Norfolk, Suffolk, Newport News, and a training class in Richmond. There was a large enrollment in each of these schools, a large number receiving credit.

The Youth Fellowship in our Conference is becoming one of the largest bodies in the Conference. The attendance is growing each year, and the work that the Youth Fellowship is doing throughout the bounds of the Conference, is known and felt in every church. Some of the worthy goals which it has set itself to are as follows: (1) To get the young people actively at work in every church; (2) To increase the subscription list of The Christian Sun; (3) To help encourage the young people in giving to support the work of the church; (4) To increase interest in study and training for efficient leadership in the church; (5) To win at least 200 other young people to Christ during the year.

The Youth Fellowship recommends itself to further financial support and a hearty cooperation on the part of every pastor and church within the Conference.

The Board of Christian Education also recommends itself to the brotherhood to such an extent that every church should try to have a training class or school within its reach; thereby acquainting its members with all phases of our church's activities. The Board is ready to cooperate by furnishing help and teachers for this work.

Respectfully submitted,

The report of the Committee on Superannuation was read by Dr. L. E. Smith, Chairman, and adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SUPERANNUATION.

These are unusual days in which we are living—tragic days in many respects—material holdings are being dissipated and individual fortunes are slipping away. Men in all walks of life are finding it difficult to stem this terrific outgoing tide. Practically every business man has suffered serious reverses in recent years—individual incomes have been reduced seriously. These conditions are reflecting themselves already in every kind and type of benevolent work. Churches and church institutions are finding it difficult to secure sufficient financial assistance to keep going at a commendable rate.

Christian people should be careful in days of stress and strain such as we have been passing through lest they allow themselves to withdraw their contributions for the support of the things that really count. Our laymen should bear in mind the value of the ministry to the church, the period of time and expense of preparation demanded of a minister if he is to be able to meet their requirements, and also the small salary that he has received through the years. There are many of our most faithful and devoted ministers who have been unable to provide anything beyond actual expenses so that when their earning power is gone they find themselves dependent.

It has been the privilege and pleasure of our Conferences and Convention to come to the rescue of our ministers who find it impossible to provide the necessities of life for themselves and families. It has been our custom to appropriate money from the Convention Fund for this purpose. Last year the appropriation for this purpose was drastically reduced. Judging from present indications this fund will be still further reduced this year. We have some very needy cases that must be cared for. These brethren have served the church faithfully and they are now looking to the church for an expression of appreciation. We cannot afford to withhold this expression. Your committee, therefore, recommends:

1. That the churches of this Conference which have paid their Conference apportionments in full be appreciatively commended for their cooperation and generous spirit.

2. That all churches that have not raised their apportionments in full be requested to make an additional effort within the next month to meet the Conference requirements.

3. That the churches of this Conference join in with other churches of the General Council of Congregational and Christian Churches throughout the country in soliciting and receiving a Christmas Offering for the benefit of our aged and dependent ministers and their families; that this Christmas Offering be received in every church, forwarded to Dr. J. O. Atkinson, who, in turn, is requested to forward the same to Dr. Lewis T. Reed, Executive Secretary of the Board of Ministerial Relief, 287 Fourth Avenue, New York. Dr. Reed will disburse the same in full according to the request of the Board of Superannuation of the Southern Convention.

4. That the churches be requested to receive Special Offerings for this Fund at the communion service each quarter.

L. E. SMITH,
J. M. DARDEN,
J. A. WILLIAMS,

Committee.

It was moved and carried that the Secretary be instructed to receive the Conference funds and transmit same to the Treasurer.

The report of the Committee on Finance was read by Rev. C. E. Gerringier and adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

We, your Committee on Finance, beg leave to submit the following report:

We have examined the report of Mr. W. E. MacClenny, Treasurer, find same correct, and recommend that it be adopted.

We have checked the report of R. C. Norfleet, Collector, and find same correct—total collections amounting to $5,200.11.

We recommend the payment of the following items from the Conference Fund:

Dr. I. W. Johnson, salary.....	$50.00
Dr. I. W. Johnson, postage and stationery.....	4.00
Central Publishing Co., programs	4.50

Total	$58.50
-------------	---------

We recommend the following division of funds:

Conference Fund	$ 300.00
Home Mission Fund	1,800.00

We recommend that after the above amounts have been deducted from the Conference apportionments paid in, the Secretary be instructed to forward draft to the Southern Convention of Congregational-Christian Churches, Dr. W. C. Wicker, Treasurer, for the remainder.

Respectfully submitted,

C. E. GERRINGER,

M. J. W. WHITE,

Committee.

Rev. Robert Lee House made a report on the Christian Missionary Association, and called attention to the next session to be held at South Norfolk Christian Church in December.

It was moved and carried that the report of the Committee on Moral Reform be reconsidered.

Under reconsideration of this report the following words were stricken from the report: "Rather than permit liquor laws to be framed by brewers, distillers and wet politicians." The report was adopted in the amended form, as it appears in the minutes.

It was moved and carried that the Secretary be instructed to furnish printed copies of the important motions and resolutions adopted by the Conference, to the pastors and other officials of the churches of the Conference, for their information and guidance for the ensuing year, and draw draft on the Conference Fund to pay the cost of same.

It was moved and carried that the President appoint a Committee of Three whose business it shall be to aid churches in securing pastors, and aid the churches in every possible way. The President appointed the Home Mission Committee to consider this work as directed.

The report of the Committee on Evangelism was read by Rev. J. F. Morgan, and after addresses by Revs. J. F. Morgan, O. D. Poythress and E. B. White, was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM.

We, your Committee on Evangelism, wish to submit the following report:

Evangelism means the "putting forth of an earnest effort for the spread of the Gospel of Christ," says one definition. "The work of an evangelist," says another, "is the proclamation of the glad tidings to those who have not known them, rather than the pastoral care and instruction of those who have believed and been baptized."

We understand evangelism, then, to be the portion of our task as Christians, in which we labor to win men and women, boys and girls to a definite decision for Christ, and a confession of Him as their personal Saviour. This, we believe, is a most important part of our work as a Conference. It is the only way by which we can grow in numbers, as well as the only way by which we are to be instrumental in saving men and women, boys and girls, from a life of sin to a life of faith in Christ.

Your Committee would recommend, therefore:

1. That greater emphasis be laid upon this phase of our work, in all our churches and Sunday Schools, as well as in our Summer Training Schools, and other Training Institutes of the church.

2. That the idea of personal evangelism be always kept before the members of our churches, that there may ever be present in our services the faith that people may be saved and unite with the church, at our regular services, as well as during special evangelistic campaigns.

3. That this personal evangelism be supplemented in all our churches by special intensive evangelistic meetings, in each of our churches of the Conference, at least once a year. In churches that have full time preaching we would suggest that two such series be held each year.

4. We recommend that the pastors of our Conference cooperate in this matter of special evangelistic meetings, and see that such a series be held in each church this year, at the least possible expense. The forming of two or more evangelistic teams in our Conference for this work would be a fine thing.

5. That there be special emphasis laid upon the winning of souls to Christ, in all our churches during the weeks before and leading up to and through Easter Sunday.

J. F. MORGAN,
O. D. POYTHRESS,
J. H. WARREN,

Committee.

The report of the Committee on Memoirs was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MEMOIRS.

Your Committee begs to report that during the past year no minister nor officer of the Conference has been called from the church militant to the church triumphant. For this we are thankful to Almighty God for his mercies during the year just closing.

We sympathize with Dr. Elwood W. Jones in the loss of his wife within the year, and pray for the presence of God with him in his great loss.

Respectfully submitted,

W. E. MACCLENNY,
H. S. HARDCASTLE,

Committee.

The report of the Committee on Place was submitted by Mrs. J. A. Williams, Chairman. It was moved and carried that the Conference accept the invitation of Bethlehem Church as the place for holding next session.

It was moved and carried that the minutes be printed in the ANNUAL, that 600 copies be purchased and distributed pro rata among the churches, and the Secretary be instructed to draw a draft on the Conference Fund to pay for the same.

The Committee on Consideration of the Convention Resolutions reported that they desired a meeting with the Executive Board of the Convention to further consider these resolutions before making a final report. The Committee was continued.

It was moved and carried that Conference adjourn until 1:30 P. M., for lunch.

Benediction by Rev. O. D. Poythress.

THIRD DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

Conference met and called to order at 1:40 P. M. Devotional service led by Rev. C. E. Geringer.

Solo, "It Pays to Serve Jesus," sung by Mrs. W. F. Monell, of Portsmouth, Va.

The following resolution was adopted as an expression of the attitude of the Conference towards the Southern Convention Resolutions: "Resolved, that we express our thanks to, and desire to cooperate with, the Executive Board and the Committee of Ten of the Convention, in their efforts to unify and coordinate the work of the Congregational and Christian Churches in the Convention, in keeping with all plans previously adopted by the Conference and Convention looking to this end."

The report of the Committee on Resolutions was read by Dr. W. M. Jay, Chairman, and adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

Your Committee on Resolutions would submit the following report:

We would express our appreciation as a Conference to the Holy Neck church for the handsome and historical souvenir presented to members of Conference, and through this church to Mr. W. H. Baker, who was the donor of this very appropriate gift, together with the meal tickets and registration cards to the church.

We would further express our gracious appreciation to the following persons for special services rendered during this session of Conference: Mrs. W. F. Monell for her beautiful solos, to Revs. J. F. Morgan and O. D. Poythress for their inspiring leadership in song; to Miss Mary Rawles Jones of this church for her gracious and hearty address of welcome; to Mrs. I. W. Johnson for her faithfulness and efficiency at the piano.

We would express to the Rev. Elwood W. Jones, pastor of Franklin Christian Church, our deep and abiding sympathy in the hour of bereavement, and in the loss of his dear companion. May the benediction and comfort of a loving heavenly Father be his forever.

We would further express our sincere sympathy to the Rev. W. H. Garman and his church in the serious loss they have sustained, caused by fire that did great damage to the whole building, and also consumed the pastor's library. We commend to them a steadfast faith in God, and a courage that will make them to rise in their strength to build better and greater.

We would express our gratitude to the officers of this Conference for their faithful service during the past year, and especially during the present session of Conference. Especially do we commend our worthy Secretary for his diligence in the strenuous duties as Secretary, and his acute sense of looking after details. We commend also most heartily our worthy President for the promptness, fairness, and dignity with which he has presided over the sessions of Conference. We would also commend with gratitude all those who have appeared on the program in their several capacities and have contributed to the success of the program.

We would express, as a Conference, by standing vote, our sincere gratitude and appreciation to the entertaining church and its pastor for their wonderful hospitality, the generous welcome, the bountiful and well served meals, and the gracious entertainment of delegates in their homes. The spirit of the Conference has been harmonious and wholesome, and the Holy Neck spirit and good will has been an influential factor in this regard.

We extend to the bereaved family and to the Woman's Missionary Conference our sincere sympathy in the heavy loss they have sustained during the past year in the death of Mrs. J. B. Gay of Franklin. Mrs. Gay was not only a gracious mistress of her home, an ardent worker in the church, but the late President of the Woman's Missionary Society, and her loss from our fellowship will be keenly felt.

Respectfully submitted,

W. M. JAY,
MRS. J. W. MANNING,
Committee.

FIRST DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Conference was called to order by President Brady at 2 o'clock. After singing "Blessed Assurance," devotional services were conducted by Rev. J. U. Fogleman. He used for his theme, "The Prevention of War." Revs. A. L. Lucas and J. U. Fogleman were enrolled as ministers.

Rev. T. J. Green introduced the following visitors who were seated as deliberative members: Dr. M. J. Sweet, Congregational Pastor-at-Large; Rev. W. T. Scott, pastor, Congregational-Christian Church, Winston-Salem; Dr. S. C. Harrell, President of the Southern Christian Convention; Chas. D. Johnston, Superintendent, Orphanage.

The report of the Committee on Evangelism was presented by Rev. M. A. Pollard, and said report was adopted. On motion of Dr. M. E. Street, the Conference voted to have this report published in The Christian Sun.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM.

We, your Committee on Evangelism, beg to submit the following report:

1. That we express our thanks to our heavenly Father for the results of the efforts put forth in the field of Evangelism during the year.

2. That seeing the great need of the people for Christ and His Gospel this day, we pledge ourselves, both pastors and all other Christian workers, to put forth a greater effort the coming year to preach and teach the same.

3. That special emphasis be placed upon John 3:3, of the new birth, since there seems to be a letting up of the preaching and teaching of this doctrine. We fear the danger of substituting reformation for regeneration.

4. We are assured that "the Gospel of Christ is the power of God unto salvation," and that "we are born not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the Word of God which liveth and abideth forever."

5. We recommend that individual evangelism become the great program of the church, for that this effort has developed the church of today, occasioned the spiritual growth of the individual, and evidenced the obedience of the disciple to his Lord, who hath commanded us to go into the whole world and "preach the Gospel to every creature." "He that winneth souls is wise," and "They that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament, and they that turn many to righteousness, as the stars forever and ever." We affirm that all wisdom which does not point men to this supreme objective of life, viz., the winning of souls, is both false and fatal.

6. Soul-winning should not be left to the pastor alone, but members of every local church should share with the pastor the responsibility of winning souls to Christ. We fear far too many church members get so busy with the material things of the church that they forget the one essential thing—the one thing for which Christ died, and for which the church exists—namely, to save and bring men to Him and enlist them in His service.

7. The goal of evangelism is the production of Christ-like character and life in individuals and in society; through moral and spiritual conversion; by faith in and fellowship with God through Jesus Christ, His Son, our Lord and Saviour; through sharing of a brotherhood life transcending all distinctions in the new divine society, the Kingdom of God on earth; and through becoming witnesses in word and life by the power of the Holy Spirit of this new life to others.

Respectfully submitted,

M. A. POLLARD,

J. M. ALLRED,

D. R. MOFFITT,

Convention Resolutions were read by Dr. Stanley C. Harrell, after which motion was made and carried that these Resolutions be discussed. After explaining, questioning and discussing Resolutions 1, 2 and 5, it was moved and carried that these Resolutions be referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

Reports from ministers and churches were called for, and were handed into the Secretary.

Rev. T. E. White read the report on Foreign Missions. While motion was pending to adopt the report, Dr. J. O. Atkinson, Mission Secretary, addressed the Conference.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The origin of missions is found in the heart of God. If he chose one nation and blessed them above all others, it was for the purpose that the nation so chosen and blessed should be a blessing to all other nations. The Jews did not comprehend their mission and their responsibility to other nations. They were selfish and exclusive in their religion and practice. They read of their great missionary heroes—of Joseph in Egypt, Jonah in Nineveh, and Daniel in Babylon; and they chanted great missionary hymns as recorded in the Psalms; and failed to comprehend it all. They have had, strange as it may seem, the greatest missionaries, though they were unwilling ones; and though they were non-missionary, they have given to the world the greatest literature on missions that has ever been written. What shall we say to these things? Let us fear lest we who have been made high by the blood of Christ, and have been chosen by Him, shall fail to comprehend our responsibility to the nations, and the spirit of our God and His Christ.

The test of our knowledge and love is to be missionary. We do not love Christ unless we are so. "He that hath my commandments and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me." And "He that loveth me not, keepeth not my sayings," And what is His commandment? That we shall go into all the world and be His witnesses. If we love only those who love us, we are not better than sinners. But if we obey the commands of Jesus, we are Christians; and the Father and the Son dwelleth in us.

The greatest purpose of the church is to make Christ known to the world. There are dozens of other things it may do, but these are all subsidiary to the voice of the Spirit that cries for the separation of the Barnabases and Pauls to preach the Gospel in the regions beyond. It is the biggest and best business in the world. There is a spirit in it, and it is like the Spirit of God and of Christ. Other fields of industry may have over-production and unemployment, but in the missionary work, it has ever been true that the fields are white unto the harvest and the laborers are few. Since the union of our church with the Congregational Church, and since what is theirs is ours, and ours theirs, we may say that the sun never sets upon the work of our church. From the Year Book of 1932 we find the following summary:

"The American Board is responsible for a foreign parish of 80,000,000 people. There are 16 missions under 11 different flags. The stations connected with these missions number 97 and the out-stations 2,190. The missionaries under life appointment are 602 and include 137 ordained men, 68 unordained men, 205 wives and 192 single women. There are 63 associates who are serving for shorter periods, making a grand total of 665 missionaries. The native force of workers is 5,398. Religious services are carried on in 2,690 places. There are 745 organized churches with 103,310 communicants. In 1931, 7,190 members were added to the church rolls. The total Christian constituency numbers 314,802. There are 1,540 Sunday Schools and 85,689 pupils. The educational work has 30 theological and training schools with 2,013 pupils and 10 colleges with 3,232 students. Below these are 67 secondary or middle schools with 12,935 pupils, 1,168 primary and elementary schools with 74,620 pupils and 28 industrial and vocational schools with 1,080 pupils. The schools of all grades are 1,303, and the total under instruction is 93,880. The medical statistics show that the Board has 31 hospitals and dispensaries with which are connected 43 physicians and 20 foreign nurses. The record shows that there are 26,690 hospital patients and 181,995 dispensary patients. The total treatments were 645,053, or over 1,700 treatments per day. The native contributions for church work were $290,069, and receipts for all purposes amount to $777,688."

But we regret to report that for the past three years our Boards have been reducing salaries, withdrawing missionaries, and closing schools and churches. We are also informed that the loss in contributions on August 1st, as compared with last year, was about 30 per cent. My brethren, these things ought not so to be. In view of these facts we recommend the following:

1. That greater thinking be given to the subject of Missions, and greater emphasis be given in our preaching and teaching.

2. That our people subscribe to The Missionary Herald, "The Guest Book," and that they read missionary books, and especially the page devoted to Missions in The Christian Sun.

3. That our churches be requested to set as a goal for next year one-third as much for Missions as we pay our pastors, and that special emphasis be given to the Easter Offering for Missions.

Respectfully submitted,

T. E. WHITE,
T. J. GREEN,
W. C. MARTIN,

Committee.

Lowdermilk and Misses Gladys and Lillian Cox. Devotional service was conducted by Rev. H. V. Cox, who used for his theme: "What Will Keep Us From Going Away From Christ?"

Minutes of the previous day were read and approved as read.

The report of the Committee on Home Missions was submitted by Chairman H. V. Cox.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS.

The church is a divine institution, the object of which is to save souls. Therefore, God's purpose for the church in the world is to be a saving power. We recognize her mission, but seem slow in carrying out the program, namely,

"Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." As a denomination we can only grow as we heed the command, and our going depends upon our faith in Him, who said, "Upon this rock I will build my church." Believing that the light that shineth the brightest at home will reflect its rays the farthest away from home, therefore, your Committee recommends: That our weaker churches, that are struggling to keep going receive such aid from the Home Mission funds as the Committee deems advisable—after investigating their needs—this sum not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200.00).

Respectfully submitted,

H. V. COX,

J. M. ALLRED,

Committee.

While the report was pending, Dr. J. O. Atkinson discussed the same, after which the report was adopted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Your Committee on Sunday Schools is pleased to report that some have said our annual convention, which was held at Big Oak on July 4th, was the best convention we have ever had. Be that as it may, the attendance and interest were very good, and we desire to see our Sunday School work go forward. Therefore, we recommend:

1. That all Sunday School workers strive to make the coming year an outstanding one in Sunday School progress.

2. That each Sunday School, not doing so now, send a monthly offering to our Orphanage and to Missions, thereby making our Conference the first to be 100 per cent in making these offerings.

3. That every church send delegates and a good report to our next convention, which meets with Antioch (R) next July.

4. That each school organize and maintain a Workers' Training Department.

Rev. T. J. Green presented the report of Committee on Education. While motion was pending to adopt the report, Dr. L. E. Smith addressed the Conference on behalf of Elon College. His subject was: "Divine Love." Dr. Smith also submitted some recommendations for the Conference to consider. Dr. J. O. Atkinson discussed the report, after which the report was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

In this day and age of such general diffusion of education, we realize more and more the need of education of our young people who aspire to the ministry and leadership of our churches.

Not only do our young people need to be educated in a secular way, but to be morally and spiritually trained for church leadership, and this cannot be done by secular educational institutions, but must be done by church or denominational schools and colleges.

Our own church college, Elon, seeks to meet this growing demand of our denomination and under its present management of consecrated leadership, deserves our first consideration, both of our parents and students, in deciding on a place of our educational training.

As we look back to the services rendered by our college in noble lives and characters, whose worth to our denomination cannot be computed, we turn again to the future with optimism for the continued product of her great blessings upon us.

We feel that our college is slowly but surely emerging from the financial embarrassment to which she has been subjected, and we heartily endorse the fifth Sunday offerings of the Sunday Schools, the Dollar-a-Month Club by the Alumni and friends of the College, and trust that many shall be moved to give in a larger way.

We recommend that Bro. Carl Key, who is a graduate of Elon College and is now taking further study preparatory to his ministerial education, be continued as a licentiate.

Bro. B. H. Lowdermilk, who has served Spoon's Chapel and Pleasant Union acceptably for several years, has been recommended by these churches for ordination. We recommend, at present, that he be continued as a licentiate.

That Bro. John Q. Pugh, who has been pastor of Patterson's Grove, be likewise continued as a licentiate.

Three candidates for licensure have come before the Committee, namely: Bro. R. I. Williams of Pleasant Union, Bro. W. O. Smith of Spoon's Chapel, and Bro. James Newell of Pleasant Ridge, with recommendations from their respective churches. We recommend that they acquaint themselves more fully with the Government and Principles of the Christian Church and its requirements, meanwhile they exercise their gifts of talent, and appear before the Committee on Education for examination at or before the next annual Conference, as the Committee may designate.

T. J. GREEN,
E. CARL BRADY,
M. A. POLLARD,

Committee.

Rev. T. J. Green introduced the following visitors, who were seated as deliberative members: Rev. J. L. Neese, North Carolina and Virginia Conference; Rev. H. M. Stroup, pastor Ramseur Baptist Church; Rev. Raymond Lanier, pastor Bessemer Baptist Church.

Report of the Committee on Religious Literature was presented by Rev. T. E. White, and adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RELIGIOUS LITERATURE.

Literature is the soul of the nation. Nations die, but their literature lives on. In them are preserved the thoughts and deeds of mankind. He who can read can hold communion with great minds of all ages. Literature is food for the mind and heart; and the products of our minds and hearts become like the mental food we digest. Literature plants, fertilizes and cultivates. We are what we are, largely because of what we read. The press is pouring forth a steady stream of both good and bad literature; and it is a matter of the greatest importance to know how to treasure the good and reject the bad. To this end we recommend:

1. That we acquaint ourselves with our own supply houses, secure their catalogues, and patronize them. They can furnish us with a splendid assortment of books new and old, and such as we need and ought to have.

2. That the Bible be read by books, a whole book at one sitting. And to those who have found the Bible to be dull reading we recommend two small books to be read: "The Mastery of the English Bible," by James M. Gray, and "The Bible as Good Reading," by Albert J. Beveridge.

3. That the members of this Conference be urged to subscribe for and read The Christian Sun, and if possible, The Congregationalist and Herald of Gospel Liberty, The Missionary Outlook, and The Christian Endeavor World.

T. E. WHITE,
G. M. TALLY,

Committee.

Rev. G. M. Tally read the report of the Committee on Social Service, which was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SOCIAL SERVICE.

We, the members of the Social Service Committee, do hereby recommend that our people take an active interest in the social problems of today. As Christians we should do our best to make bad conditions good, and good conditions better. Let us strive to combat with such problems as are presented by unemployment and economic conditions generally. Nor would we forget the problems of education, home improvements, and other problems which are so necessary and so helpful to the betterment of society. Let us be honest in our opinion, and in government support those who are working for the good of our nation, rather than for personal development.

G. M. TALLY, Chairman.

Rev. T. J. Green was added to the Committee on Christian Endeavor.

Motion was made by Rev. T. J. Green that recommendations of Dr. Smith be incorporated in the report of Committee on Education.

President White requested said Committee to make the supplementary report.

Freeman was enrolled as a delegate from Ether. The report of the Committee on Christian Endeavor was submitted by Rev. T. J. Green. The report was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

We, your Committee on Christian Endeavor, believe in Christian Endeavor and its principles, but we must report that there are a very few societies in this Conference. Since this is true, we recommend:

1. That each church, where possible, organize and maintain a Senior C. E. Society.
2. That the pastor of each church, and others especially interested in the young people's work, cooperate in carrying out recommendation No. 1.
3. That each church send one or more delegates to the Summer Training School for Leaders at Elon College.

G. M. TALLY,

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

Elon College is now in great need, and to relieve this need the Board of Trustees, through its Executive Committee, recently instituted a campaign to raise $25,000.00, if possible, by February 28th, for teachers' pay and current expenses.

We recommend:

1. That our North Carolina and Virginia Conference assume $5,000.00 as its share, $3,000.00 of which is to be raised through the churches, and that the President of the College be requested to raise the remaining $2,000.00.

2. That each local church raise its share on the basis of 50c per member, and that all money sent from the Dollar-a-Month Club, the fifth Sunday offerings, special offerings, etc., count on the local church's share.

3. That the annual reports to Conference show how much each local church has sent in to Elon College during the year.

4. That a Committee on Elon College be named by the pastor in each local church, consisting of the pastor and two more members, whose duty it shall be to direct this campaign in the local church, collecting and sending the money therefrom through the local church treasurer to Elon College.

5. That we designate January and February as Educational Period, during which time the churches are called upon to raise the $5,000.00 as allotted above, and that the second Sunday in January be Elon Sunday.

6. That the Executive Committee of the Conference be, and is hereby constituted an Elon College Committee, whose duties will be to see that the above recommendations are carried out, the campaign to begin January 1st.

Brother B. H. Watkins, formerly a licentiate and member in the Baptist Church, came before your Committee for examination and with application from the Lynchburg Christian Church that he be ordained as an Elder in the Christian Church. After due examination and consideration of the matter, your Committee recommends that the Conference at this session ordain Bro. Watkins.

J. E. Neese, formerly licensed as a local preacher in the Methodist Church, came before your Committee, having transferred his membership to the Christian Church, and asked for licensure in this Conference. Brother Neese is a member of the Sophomore Class in Elon College and has given a good account of himself as a ministerial student since entering the College, September 1932. We recommend that he be licensed as a probationer.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MEMOIRS.

DR. DANIEL ALBRIGHT LONG.

Daniel Albright Long was born in Alamance County, May 2, 1844, the son of Jacob and Jane Stewart Stockard Long, and fell asleep at the home of his son in Florence, S. C., October 26, 1933. His was an eventful, brilliant and useful career. He was educated at the University of North Carolina, from which institution he received his A. M. degree in 1871, the Doctor of Divinity degree in 1876, and later the LL. D. degree.

He began his career as teacher in the public schools of Alamance at the age of sixteen and later, with his brother, Dr. W. S. Long, founded Graham Normal College, of which institution he was president for ten years. In connection with his work as teacher, he was an able and eloquent preacher, and while teaching served as pastor of several churches. From Graham he went to the presidency of Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio, and then to the presidency of Union Christian College, Merom, Ind. Though giving the major portion of his time and talents to the task of Christian education and administrative work in the field of higher learning, he never lost interest in the ministry, and through the pulpit made lasting contributions to the church and the world. Distinguished as educator and scholar, his church entrusted to him for eight years the highest honor within its gift, viz., that of the presidency of the American Christian Convention, over which he presided with merit and ability.

Dr. Long was as much at home in the field of law and parliamentary procedure as he was on the lecture platform or in the pulpit. Versatile, learned, eloquent, a close student of law, philosophy and homiletics, he served eminently in the high positions to which he was called and made a vast contribution to his day and generation.

Being of a distinguished family, he was the last of the seven to go, his brothers and sisters being: Mr. John Long, of St. Joseph, Mo. (the father of Mrs. J. U. Newman, Elon College); Mrs. Bettie Long Clendenin, of Graham, N. C. (mother of Mrs. N. G. Newman, Holland, Va.); Dr. W. S. Long, founder and first president of Elon College; Jacob A. Long, distinguished attorney, Graham, N. C. (father of Mrs. S. E. Everett, Suffolk, Va.); Dr. Geo. W. Long, Graham, N. C.; Judge Benjamin F. Long, of Statesville, N. C. Dr. Long is survived by his wife, formerly Mrs. Lula Price Easley, of Tupelo, Miss.; three daughters: Mrs. D. K. Wolfe, Denver, Colo.; Mrs. Charles H. Belvin, Raleigh, N. C.; Mrs. George Albert Kernodle, Burlington, N. C., and one son, J. C. Long, Florence, S. C.

The deceased was brought back for burial to the church and the place of his early service and ministry, the funeral being conducted by Dr. W. C. Wicker, Dr. P. H. Fleming, and others from Providence-Memorial Church, Graham, N. C., Friday, October 27th. A multitude gathered to pay homage and respect to his memory, and they brought their flowers to cover his mound, a tribute of love and honor to one who had reflected honor upon the place of his nativity, the church, the county and the State which he had served with such singular talent and ability. In the death of Daniel Albright Long, the Christian Church has lost a great life, a brilliant man and a splendid leader.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

We, your Executive Committee, have transacted the following business during the year:

First, we accepted the gracious invitation of Wentworth Christian Church to meet here in this annual session of the Conference, and hereby wish to tender the church our thanks for the invitation and the provision that has been made for our entertainment.

Second, we have permitted Rev. J. C. Cummings, at his own request, to withdraw his membership from this Conference to take effect with this session of our annual meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

W. C. WICKER,

L. L. VAUGHAN,

Committee.

The report was adopted.

Dr. Stanley C. Harrell, President of the Southern Convention of Congregational-Christian Churches, presented the minutes of the Executive Board of the Southern Convention, meeting at Elon College, June 6, 1933. These minutes carried three sections, viz., Sections I, II, III, which are to be approved by the Conference. These sections are as follows:

1st. A Unified Treasury for the churches of the Southern Convention of Congregational-Christian Churches, and a united Administration Committee which will care for all the interests of all the work being done by the Christian Church and all the organizations now being supported by the Congregational Churches representing the General Council.

2nd. That the Christian Conferences of the Carolinas and Virginia make provision for Congregational Churches to become members of said Conferences on the same basis as Christian Churches, and that the present titles of Conferences in the Carolinas and Virginia be revised so as to include the Congregational Churches, this action being in line with the action of the General Council and the Southern Convention.

3rd. That the Congregational Churches of the Carolinas and Virginia unite with the Conference in which they naturally fall.

By motion these sections, as affecting this Conference, were unanimously adopted.

The Conference sermon was preached by Rev. Geo. N. Edwards, minister of the Circular Congregational Church, Charleston, S. C.

The President requested that a special offering be taken for the purpose of helping to defray the expenses of Dr. Edwards, which was $8.89.

The communion service was administered by Rev. E. M. Carter.

Adjournment for lunch.

FIRST DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Conference was called to order at 2 P. M., by the President.

Song service was conducted by Geo. M. McCullers. Devotional conducted by Rev. Robert Kimball.

The program was changed so as to permit Chas. D. Johnston, Superintendent of the Orphanage to address the Conference as to the work of the institution. A special offering was taken, to the amount of $20.00 for the Orphanage.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON STEWARDSHIP.

We, your Committee on Stewardship, submit the following report:

A Christian steward is one whose time, talent, money, body, soul and spirit belong to God. According to Luke 16:2, our Lord will one day say to us, "Give an account of thy stewardship." What will our record be as to time, self, and money which are His? Will we hear Him say in that day, "The children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light." Because of the seriousness of the steward meeting his Lord face to face, with disappointment if unfaithful; with joy if faithful, we recommend the following:

1. That we use our time and energy, as "stewards of the manifold graces of God," to buy up the opportunities as they come to us daily.

2. That we seek anew to "present our bodies as a living sacrifice, holy acceptable unto God, which is our reasonable service."

3. That we endeavor to learn, practice and teach what amount of the money He gives to us, is expected to be given back to Him; which is a tithe from Genesis 14:20, where Abraham gave a tithe to Melchizedek (a type of Christ), to Hebrews 7:8, where "He receiveth them (the tithes) of whom it is witnessed that He liveth."

4. That we strive earnestly to give and to get others to give systematically according to I. Cor. 16:2, "upon the first day of the week," and not the last day of the year.

Respectfully submitted,

J. LEE JOHNSON,

M. T. SORRELL,

Committee.

The report was adopted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RELIGIOUS LITERATURE.

Your Committee has observed a growing interest on the part of our people and the general public in religious literature.

As a means of stimulating and sustaining the necessary interest, studying local needs first hand, gaining and sharing information in regards to books and periodicals available, classifying and aiding in selections and circulations, we recommend a Committee on Religious Literature for each church, said Committee to be comprised of the teachers of the Sunday School.

We recommend especially, The Christian Sun, and that the above named committee make as one of its goals, "The Christian Sun in every home of the church."

B. J. HOWARD,

T. F. WRIGHT,

Committee.

The report was adopted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM.

In this age when the cause of evangelism has suffered more than at any time of late, we feel that it is due to the changes in the methods of evangelism. We are confronted with the fact that methods which have been used, that are now proving unequal to the task, must be changed.

We, therefore, would recommend that each church, with its pastor and church workers, work out and devise the best plan for their particular church and community, and put forth every possible effort to make this plan successful.

Respectfully submitted,

M. T. SORRELL,
J. A. DENTON,

Committee.

The report was adopted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SOCIAL SERVICE.

When our Lord was here upon earth he set in motion forces of social service to mankind, principles for our guidance, and to precept added the example of a life spent in the making of all life fuller and more abundant.

To the end that we, as a body of Christians, may become more like Him, we offer the following resolutions:

1. That we urge the attendance at Sunday School by young and old.
2. That the study of the Bible be urged in the home and in the Sunday School.
3. That efforts be made to place The Christian Sun in as many homes as possible.
4. That the proper observance of civic laws be enjoined upon all as good citizens.
5. That the Sabbath Day be respected as a holy day, set apart for the worship of God and service to mankind.
6. That we use our spiritual resources to strengthen the moral fabric of our times.

Respectfully submitted,

J. A. KIMBALL,
J. A. DENTON,
B. J. HOWARD,

Committee.

The report was adopted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR SOCIETIES.

Your Committee feels that progress is being made notwithstanding the difficulties of the past few years. A splendid Sunday School and Christian Endeavor Convention was held at Wake Chapel Church July 11th and 12th.

While only twenty-two Sunday Schools and two Christian Endeavor Societies were represented, the dues sent in amounted to $53.81, plus an offering of $16.01 for the Orphanage. The Convention after paying all expenses and donating $59.55 to the Board of Christian Education, has a balance in bank of $18.55.

The Board of Christian Education, to which all churches, schools and societies should be loyal, is still active and ready to serve. Although having $994.58 tied up in closed banks, this Board has continued to function, helping, advising and promoting the work of our young people. With all operating expenses paid to November 1st, the Board has $169.50 with which to go forward.

It is generally conceded by all active workers that the growth and expansion of the church and all her enterprises depends largely on the activities of her Sunday Schools and Christian Endeavor Societies, and that the youth of today will be the church of tomorrow, therefore, we recommend:

1. That both of these institutions be given more prominence and consideration during our Conference sessions.
2. That this Conference urge all its pastors and superintendents to have their churches fully represented at the Sunday School and Christian Endeavor Convention each year, thereby assisting in the promotion and support of the Board of Christian Education of which each individual school or society is a vital part and an important link in the chain of services rendered by any church.

3. That the worth and importance of Missions and our Orphanage be taught in all Sunday Schools and Christian Endeavor Societies and each be emphasized with a monthly offering.

C. H. STEPHENSON,
R. A. WHITTEN,
H. C. HILLIARD,

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN MISSIONS.

In a recent issue of The Christian Sun, Dr. Fred Field Goodsell writes concerning the American Board as being in reality a fellowship of which Christ is the center and the source of power.

Dr. Goodsell says, "It is a fellowship of all those who care deeply about sharing Christ with those of all lands. Our Missionaries and their National Associations are the heart of our world-wide fellowship, but the officers of the Board, the corporate members, many pastors of our churches in many States, and many, many friends, men and women, some in great cities, some in quiet rural homes, are vital parts of this fellowship."

The numerous gifts as mentioned in Dr. Goodsell's article indicate a loyalty to the cause of Christ and bespeak the joy of the individuals who have shared in this world-wide fellowship.

The members of our Mission Board face the immediate present and the future with a degree of uncertainty, because of lack of funds. The gifts from churches have fallen off 41 per cent from 1927 to 1933, with 24 per cent less in the fiscal year closing August 31, 1933, than the previous year. Therefore, the result is that the Board has incurred a heavy deficit, and one-sixth of our missionaries have been retired without replacement since 1929.

The measure of our devotion to the Kingdom of the Lord will be determined largely by our contributions, for money is the symbol, not the bond, of human fellowship. Christ shared his life with others. He taught his disciples to do the same. No Christian Church or individual can represent His kingdom without being possessed with the same spirit.

Our message is Jesus Christ. He is the revelation of what God is and what man through Him may become. He makes known to us God as our Father, perfect and infinite in love and in righteousness. It is the supreme task of the church to give this message to the world, and when we fail in this, we fail in the essential task for which the church was founded of our Lord.

We recommend:

1. That in teaching and preaching we seek to lay upon the hearts of our people our missionary message, which message is Jesus Christ. The world needs Him, for through Him alone is redemption and salvation.

2. That all our Sunday Schools take the monthly offering for Missions and seek the coming year to largely increase those of the past year.

3. That the men of the church be urged to equal their interest in Missions to the interest manifested among the women of the church.

4. That every church take the annual offering for Missions at or about Easter, and that every member of every church be given the privilege of making some contribution to Missions.

5. That the goal for Missions in our churches the coming year be one-third the amount of pastors' salaries.

Respectfully submitted,

R. A. WHITTEN, Chairman.

REPORT OF WOMAN'S MISSIONARY WORK IN THE EASTERN NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE.

The financial report for 1933 is as follows:

Women's Societies.—Antioch $5.82; Coraleigh, $1.00; Catawba Spgs., $25.00; Chapel Hill, $10.00; Christian Light, $2.25; Fuller's Chapel, $19.70; Henderson, $55.00; Liberty (Vance), $100.00; Mt. Auburn, $17.05; New Hope, $10.00; Piney Plains, $30.00; Pleasant Union, $6.80; Raleigh, $153.10; Sanford, $58.50; Shallow Well, $60.00; Turner's Chapel, $23.69; Wake Chapel, $42.80; Youngsville, $10.00. Total, $630.71.

Young People's Societies.—Henderson, $10.00; Sanford, $3.00. Total, $13.00.

Cradle Rolls.—Raleigh, $10.00; Sanford, $5.50; Turner's Chapel, $1.45; Wake Chapel, $3.17: Total, $20.12.

Making a total from all societies of $663.83.

The North Carolina Woman's Missionary Conference is made up of three Conferences, the Eastern North Carolina Conference, the Western North Carolina Conference and the North Carolina and Virginia Conference. In the Eastern North Carolina Conference we have 18 Women's Societies, 2 Young People's Societies and 4 Cradle Rolls. The total amount raised by all societies was $663.83. The total amount received from the Western North Carolina Conference was $837.83. The total amount received from the North Carolina and Virginia Conference was $1,336.42. From the district meetings, $40.24, and Conference offering, $14.83, making a total for the North Carolina Woman's Missionary Conference of $2,893.15 for 1933.

We see from the financial report that the Eastern North Carolina Conference is not up with the other two Conferences in amount of money raised. I think the reason for that is because the Eastern North Carolina Conference is composed mostly of rural churches, and it is very hard to have organized missionary societies in country churches. Some of the churches are very weak and the members live a great distance apart. It is distressing to know that only about half of the churches in the Eastern North Carolina Conference have missionary societies. By not having missionary societies the women know little of the work we are trying to do. They seem apparently uninterested in mission work, when they should be enrolled in missionary societies. They just seem to think that a missionary society cannot be carried on in a country church. Why do they think this? Some say that they live so far apart and others say they cannot get the women of their church interested in missions, and that two or three cannot have a society. But if they could only catch the missionary spirit and see that Christ included each of us when He said, "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature," they would see the need of a missionary society, and would know how much they could help in the mission work with their prayers and means, even if they only had a few members.

The women are waiting for us to help them. Are we, who are members of missionary societies, going to sit still and not help our weaker churches organize into mission work, and carry on a missionary society? I think if the women only knew about the work they would be more interested and ready to help with the mission work.

One way of creating more interest in missions in the country churches is through the pastors. I think the success of our work is due largely to the pastors, through their help and cooperation. And not only to the pastors, but to all the women who have labored so faithfully in their missionary societies in helping to carry on the missionary work. Another way to create more interest is through the use of the literature which has been prepared for us free by the Woman's Board and our beloved Mission Secretary, Dr. J. O. Atkinson.

I just wish each one of you could have been present at our North Carolina Woman's Missionary Conference, which was held at Turner's Chapel, October 20th. The theme, "We Do Our Part," was carried out in a very interesting and helpful way, making the day one of inspiration and joy.

I want you who think you cannot have a society, or if your society is weak, not to give up, but strive onward and remember that the King's business requires haste, and that we must not give up and say we can't, for "The line shall not break where we stand." Let each strong society do what they can to help keep the weaker societies going, and if they would but help in this way and with the help of the pastors and the literature for our use, there should not be a church in the Eastern North Carolina Conference without a live, active Woman's Missionary Society.

Shall we not strive, then, to make 1934 a year richer in work for our Master than we have done in the past?

MARGARET ALSTON.

Address by Dr. J. O. Atkinson, Mission Secretary.

The report was adopted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

We feel that it is not necessary to recommend as to the importance of an educated ministry. That is a foregone conclusion, for we would not expect a church to advance in that ever widening realm of service beyond that of its leaders.

But in these strenuous days of anxiety as to the future of Elon College, we are saying that it is needful that all Christian families should give their loyal support to this institution which has meant so much to the church. Its physical plant is the best of any small college in the country. Its faculty, loyal and self-sacrificing, cannot be excelled anywhere. Its President, Dr. L. E. Smith, is energetic and alert to the needs of the institution. We would, therefore, urge a faithful and loyal patronage of our Elon College.

Wherever it is possible to do so, we would suggest the fifth Sunday offering for the College. The best plan yet is the Dollar-a-Month Club for those who have an income that would make the same possible.

R. A. Whitten, Jr., a member of the Henderson Church, has made application for license to preach, and is a member of the Freshman Class at Elon College. Brother Whitten came before your Committee and with his record since entering Elon, made a favorable impression. We recommend that he be enrolled as a member of the Biblical Class.

We recommend that R. A. Whitten, Jr., be granted a loan of one hundred dollars ($100.00) to aid him in school next year.

We recommend that Revs. R. A. Whitten and H. E. Crutchfield be granted letters of transfer from this Conference to join the Conference in which they reside.

We recommend that our Conference take recognition of, and endorse, a recent action of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees of Elon College, authorizing a campaign to raise $25,000.00 for Elon.

We recommend that our Eastern North Carolina Conference assume $2,000.00 as its share, and that the churches endeavor to raise their proportionate part thereof; and that the President of Elon be invited to assist in the campaign.

That all monies raised by fifth Sunday and special offerings be counted on the local church's share. Said campaign to begin January 1, 1934.

H. E. CRUTCHFIELD,

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS.

As we have heard the reports from the various churches, we are led to believe that as churches and as a Conference we have lost interest in Home Mission work.

As the local church grows by adding members, a Conference grows by adding churches and congregations. But this Conference has not done any definite work in organizing churches the past several years.

At the present there appears to be an opportunity at Lucama, N. C., to organize a Christian Church, provided we help them secure and pay a pastor, they having expressed a willingness to pay one-third of the pastor's salary if we will pay two-thirds.

After consulting with Dr. Atkinson and Rev. B. J. Howard, who are familiar with the situation there, your Committee recommends that we appropriate fifty dollars ($50.00) to apply on pastor's salary when a man suitable to the church there and to this Committee has been secured.

We also recommend that Bethlehem (Warren) be allowed twenty-five dollars ($25.00) to apply on pastor's salary.

We further recommend that in the future the Conference adhere to a motion passed several years ago to the effect that 20 per cent of money received on Conference apportionments be retained for Conference expenses and Home Mission work within the bounds of the Conference.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MUSIC.

We, your Committee on Music, wish to report that we consider music one of the most important parts of divine worship. Nothing contributes to real spirit of worship more than the grand old stately hymns which have come down to us from the past. The words and music of the hymns that have lived because of their sound religious thought and stately music enriched by the sacred memories of the saints of old when properly rendered prepare the worshippers who use and hear them for communion with the Spirit of the Invisible in the Christian congregation.

Nothing inspires young and old alike in the Sunday School and young people's meetings more than the finer selections of music that are written by the most excellent contributors in writing both words and music with the idea of revealing through song the real Spirit of Christ. Nothing unites people in one communion more, nothing creates more interest, nothing attracts to Sunday School and church service more than real music well rendered, in which all present participate, therefore, we recommend:

1. All song leaders should be elected by the church and approved by the pastor and that such leaders should select the music used in the services in co-operation with the pastor. Pianists should be elected by the church and approved by the leaders of music. Assistant leaders of music should be chosen by the leader, who is responsible for the quality of music rendered.

2. All song books purchased by the church or Sunday School should be approved by the leader of music and the pastor. More real gospel should be taught and used in our services.

3. That all jazzy music, so-called, should be ruled out of our services and Sunday Schools as injurious to the spiritual life of our people and detrimental to the religious spirit that we would like to cultivate among our people. As water and oil will not mix, so the real teachings of the Gospel of Christ in sermon will not harmonize with a jazzy, hop-and-skip, movie, vaudeville type of dance music when the words are as superficial as the tunes used.

4. That churches and Sunday Schools should cultivate congregational singing rather than have paid singers or voluntary choirs who do all the singing for the congregation. We admit that there are times when we want special music by selected singers, but as a rule we should follow the ancient practice and let all the people praise Him in song by cultivating the habit in the congregation of participation in all parts of the worship and religious services.

Respectfully submitted for the Committee,

GEORGE M. McCULLERS, Chairman.

The report was adopted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

Smith for his address on "Youth's Challenge of Life," and his earnest plea for Elon College; Dr. J. O. 3. That we express our appreciation to our President, Dr. W. C. Wicker, and other officers for the effective and faithful service rendered.

4. Our special thanks we wish to extend to those who have rendered special music for the Conference, which has been both inspiring and spiritual.

Departmental reports:

WOMEN'S SOCIETIES.

Bethel, 24 members; Dry Run, 12 members; Leaksville, 36 members; Linville, 38 members; New Hope, 19 members; Whistler's Chapel, 10 members; Winchester, 21 members. Total, 160 members.

MRS. ARNOLD HOSAFLOOK, Superintendent.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES.

Antioch, 36 members; Mayland, 25 members; Newport, 10 members; Winchester, 14 members. Total, 85 members.

It should be the aim of every church in the Valley Conference to have a Young People's Society. It is up to the older people of the church to encourage the young people and try to help them organize a society and get started in the work with some definite goals to reach.

If it is impossible to hold a meeting during the week, Christian Endeavor and the Missionary Society could be worked together by having a special Missionary Study one Sunday night instead of the Christian Endeavor meeting, and in this way keep the need of missions before the young people.

Young people are willing to help others and try to do good work to the needy, but they just have to be guided in the work, and we must keep before them the need of spreading the Gospel to other lands, and this can be accomplished by having Mission Study Classes.

MRS. O. L. HOOVER, Superintendent.

CRADLE ROLL SOCIETIES.

Antioch, 7 members; Leaksville, 20 members; Linville, 16 members; Winchester, 14 members. Total 57 members.

REPORTS OF DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

(LOCAL ADVENTURERS.)

Norfolk, Mrs. J. E. Cartwright; Nansemond-Franklin, Mrs. B. D. Jones; Waverly, Mrs. E. T. Atkinson. Their reports showed the following totals: Organizations, 83; members, 1,982; offerings, $5,148.00.

REPORTS OF DEPARTMENTAL SUPERINTENDENTS.

Life Memberships and Memorials—Mrs. Herbert Harrell reported 1 Life Membership for Mrs. J. E. Cartwright, by the women of Christian Temple. Five Memorials as follows: three from Suffolk Society, for Mrs. J. M. Butler, Mrs. J. T. Roberts, and Dr. W. W. Staley; one from Franklin Society, for Mrs. Mary Lee; one by the Conference, for Mrs. J. B. Gay, Past President.

Spiritual Life—Mrs. O. M. Cockes reported as follows: Prayer Bands, 19; tithers, 61; family altars, 28. The "Studies in the Psalms" was recommended to be used in the worship period. The price is 25 cents, and it may be purchased from the Committee on Woman's Work, Henry Grady Building, Atlanta, Ga. The Week of Prayer to be observed the first week in January. Day of Prayer, probably February 16, 1934.

Young People—Mrs. E. L. Beale reported as follows: Number of societies last year, 24; number of societies this year, 21. We have lost three societies this year: Antioch, Ocean View and Old Zion. Number of members last year, 522; number of members this year, 453 (a loss of 69). Amount raised last year, $1,151.55; amount raised this year, $1,020.43 (a loss of $131.12). Our quota for the year was $1,230.00; we fell short of the goal, $209.57. All but six societies raised their full apportionment. Three societies made the Honor Roll: Bethlehem, Holland and Holy Neck. Mt. Carmel, South Norfolk and Spring Hill made a 2 per cent gain in gifts over last year, but did not meet all their other requirements.

Juniors—Number of societies last year, 19; number of societies this year, 19. Number of members last year, 305; number of members this year, 370 (a gain of 65 members). Amount raised last year, $478.70; amount raised this year, $452.11 (a loss of $26.59). Quota for year, $507.50; fell short of quota, $55.39. Honor Roll Society: Christian Temple. Those who met their requirements, Oakland (new). Hopewell, lost.

Cradle Roll—Mrs. F. M. Nelson made the following report: Number of Cradle Rolls, October 1, 1932, 21; number on roll, 396; amount of offering, $112.89; Number of Cradle Rolls, October 1, 1933, 21; number on roll, 328; amount of offering, $79.66; decrease in members, 68; decrease in offering, $43.23; number of Cradle Rolls not reporting, 5.

Convention Editor—Mrs. W. M. Jay made the following report: Number of societies sending in news items for publication in The Christian Sun: Women's Societies, 9; Young People's Societies, 6; Junior Societies, 2; total, 17. Two Junior and one Woman's Society have sent in their items since October 1, 1933. Two splendid news items appeared in The Sun, which were not sent through me. Since sending in a news item is one of the 10 points on the Standard of Excellence, I am raising the question as to whether these societies should get credit. Surely, in a whole year's time, all our societies could send in one report of the work they are doing. Also, when we write we should include all the things we have been doing and not just one or two points, just to say we have made the point on Standard. Let me urge a more earnest effort in this particular phase of our Missionary Society work.

Moved and carried that these reports be accepted as read.

President's message, "Excuse or Reason," by Mrs. R. T. Bradford.

Recognition service showed 17 ministers present, and members from churches, 289. Total, 306.

Mrs. J. A. Williams, President of the Southern Christian Convention Woman's Board, was present, and urged that four Missionary Societies be organized in every church.

Mrs. W. V. Leathers, Treasurer, reported as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MEMOIRS.

Since our last meeting together our loving heavenly Father has called unto Himself eleven members of our Conference. They are: Mrs. Mary Riddick Jones, Cypress Chapel; Mrs. S. Anna White, Mrs. Hannah G. Chapman, Isle of Wight; Mrs. B. F. Collins, Mrs. C. W. Coles, Mrs. Alice M. Petit, Portsmouth; Mrs. John M. Butler, Mrs. T. J. Roberts, Suffolk; Mrs. Mary H. Lee, Mrs. Elwood W. Jones, Mrs. Annie Lee Gay, Franklin.

Our hearts are sad today as we think of those who have gone to their reward, but we bow in humble submission for we know that our heavenly Father doeth all things well. They have gone from our midst, their places are vacant, but we must carry on. There is no more fitting way to honor their memory than to honor our Christ by our works.

Our hearts are especially touched as we come to the name of Mrs. Annie Lee Gay. Last year Mrs. Gay was here in our midst and presided over this body. I wish to commend to you her integrity of character, her high ideals, her loyalty and devotion and especially her unselfish life, as an example to be emulated by every member of this Conference. Her loss is not only a loss to the Franklin Church, but to the whole Conference. So as I ask the members of the Franklin Church to stand in memory of those who have gone from our midst, I am going to ask the whole Conference to stand with us.

MRS. E. L. BEALE.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

We, the Committee on Resolutions, are happy to make the following report:

1. We are grateful for the inspiring, scintillating and energizing messages which bid us go forward, to wrestle, to recuperate, to sacrifice, to take the world for Christ.

2. We thank the people of Turner's Chapel for their bounteous hospitalities and friendship. The Conference is fortunate at being entertained here where "gladness breaks like morning." We congratulate the congregation on their new building and pray God's richest blessings upon them.

We are grateful to the Committee for presenting to the Congregational-Christian women of North Carolina such a wonderful program for the year 1934. May we reward their tireless efforts by making these programs live in all our church life.

4. We are grateful for the message of the lives of those of our number who have gone on before and whose memory we revere today.

5. May we, during the coming year, accept the challenge of our President, Mrs. Rowland, and "Do Our Part," beginning now. Plan our programs now, co-ordinate our church missionary activities. "Be radiant" in assuming our "responsibility for righteousness"—grateful to our heavenly Father, and go forth to conquer for Christ.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. E. N. BOSHART,

MRS. J. W. BARNEY,

MRS. M. J. SWEET,

Committee.
